the General Election, which is generally expected to take place on December 7th. Many Liberals and the Labour Party think that there ought not to be an appeal to the country so seen, and some of the former expressed the opinion that their leader, Mr. Asquith, had not done his party any good by pledging them again to Free Trade and Home Rule. But what else was there for him to do?" asked one of his defenders. Unionists are not sorry over Mr. Asquith's attitude on these subjects. They think that, so far as Unionist Party interests are concerned, it is distinctly good.

HOSTILITIES CEASE.

The Italian High Command issued at 4 p.m. yesterday the following statement:

In accordance with the terms of the armistice arranged between representatives of the High Command of the Royal Italian Army, acting on behalf of all the Allied Powers and the United States on the one hand, and representatives of the Austro-Hungarian High Command on the other, hostilities on land and sea and in the air on all fronts were suspended as from 3 p.m. to-day, November 4th.

(Signed) DIAZ. Oisy and the River Scheldt north of Valenciennes. They broke deeply into the German positions along the whole front, capturing Landrecies and many other towns and villages. Of prisoners Army, The war against Austria-Hungary which, under the high guidance of His Majesty the King, the supreme leader, the Italian Army, inferior in number and in material, began on May 2456, 1915, and with unbending faith and tenacious valour, conducted uninterruptedly and biterly for forty-one months, has been wen.

Further south, French forces in co-operation moved between Oisy and Early in the day the British had reached the Franco-Belgian frontier east-A great part of the Mormal Forest has been cleared as the result of heavy and bitterly for forty-one months, has been won.

The gigantic battle engaged on the 24th of last October, and in winch 51 Italian divisions, three British, two French, enc Szecho-Slovak, and one American regiment participated, against 63 Austro-Hungarian divisions, is ended. The daring and very rapid advance of the Twenty-Ninth Army Corps on the Trento, closing up the way of the enemy's Armies in the Trentino, who were overcome to the west by troops of the Seventh Army, and to the east by those of the Frest, Sixth, and Fourth, determined the Istal collapse of the enemy's front.

From the Brenta to the Torre the irresistible dash of the Tweifth, Eighth, and Tonth Armies and of the cavalry divisions is driving the fleeing enemy always further away. In the plains His Royal Highness the Duke of Aosta is advancing rapidly, at the head of his unconquered Third Armies, longing to return to these positions which it had already vic. BRITISH REPORTS.

Mr. Harleton contended that women should be made eligible for both Houses.

Mr. H. Terrell asked what right that House had to make such a grave change in the Constitution. The nation had never been consulted on the question. He did not believe that women would be elected to the House for many years to come.

Major Hills urged that the bill cupht to remove all the disqualifications against women.

Read the following extract from Dr. Hopkirk's standard work "Influenza: Its Cause and Treatment":

"In Formamint Tablets we possess the best means of preventing the infective processes which, if neglected, may lead to serious complications. Consequently every influenza patient should suck four or five of these tablets a day until convalescent · · · · There is no reason why individuals, families and households should not adopt the preventive measures that the State cannot enforce on a large scale. No hardship is involved in sucking a Formamint tablet and taking a small dose of quinine when exposed to the danger of infection."
